25X1 4. [] James Gehrig, Senate Aeronautical and Spaces Sciences Committee staff, called and asked if we had any information on a Chinese nuclear rocket or a sounding rocket which were mentioned by Representative James Fulton on the floor of the House on 23 October. After checking with FMSAC, I advised Mr. Gehrig that while we could think of related matters, we had no information regarding the types of rockets discussed by Mr. Fulton. Mr. Gehrig thanked me for checking on this.

STAT 5. [] Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, called to say that the State Department had advised him of a publication produced by the Brookings Institute for us entitled "Where's What?" He said this was a reference document for information and record location. He said he was aware that it was classified Confidential but if a copy could be made available to them they would, of course, respect the security classification. I told Sourwine I would look into this and be back in touch with him.

STAT 6. [] Advised George Murphy, Joint Committee on Atomic Energy staff, that the Director would brief the Subcommittee on Military Applications on Wednesday, 8 November at 2:00 P.M. as they had requested.

STAT 7. [] Advised Natalie Martin, in the office of Senator George Smathers, that the original tear sheets of [] such as she had requested earlier were forwarded to the congressmen concerned and copies were not retained here. She asked if we would keep a look out for items like this in the future. I pointed out the problems involved in this and asked Miss Martin if she would let this request ride. She said she appreciated our problem. STAT
